

Retreat in Everyday Life Wellington

14 - 19 May 2017

What is a Retreat?

- A retreat is an opportunity to reflect on life and to recognise God already present there.

A Retreat in Everyday Life:

- Is an opportunity to make a retreat as part of our ordinary week and seek to be aware of God in every aspect of ordinary life.
- This retreat is essentially an individual journey.
- It's a unique chance to contemplate our lives and the things that are most important to us.
- No prior retreat experience is necessary only the willingness to be open to the process offered.
- People of all religious affiliations or none are welcome.

"Time is the measure of your life.
It is God's gift!
Why not take some of this time to reflect on your gift of life,
and the presence of God within you?"

"When you call to me and come and pray to me,
I shall listen to you.
When you search
for me,
you will find me;
when you search for me wholeheartedly
I will let you find me."
Jer 28:12-14a

Preference for Director: Fr Carl Ann-Maree Robyn

Fr Carl Mackander

Carl is a diocesan priest of the Bathurst Diocese, and Parish Priest of Wellington. In 1998 after completing a three month Ignatian program at St Buenos in Wales, Carl joined Sr Patricia Nugent rsm in directing Retreats in Everyday life in the Diocese. He is an experienced guide and has wide interests in and is an avid reader of spirituality, social justice and theology.

Sr Ann-Maree O'Beirne rsm

Ann-Maree is a Sister of Mercy, interested in accompanying others in their search to recognise and give expression to God in their everyday life and has been involved with the Retreats in Everyday Life in the Diocese since 2009. With a background in teaching and parish work Ann-Maree is currently living in Bathurst, working in spiritual direction as well as a casual tutor for ACU whilst doing a PhD in Theology.

Ms Robyn Blunt

Robyn is a Lay Chaplain, parent, grandmother, and Spiritual Director, who walks daily with people searching for a deeper meaning or an awareness of a personal God in life. Spiritually and theologically, Robyn draws deeply on the rich Christian tradition, prayer practices and life experiences, to assist people who've lost faith or no longer understand who God is. Robyn works in Orange with people touched by Mental Health, Grief and Loss.
